

Hi friends! My name is Khanya, which means 'light'. I am 6-years old. I love to learn about Africa and share it with friends from all over the continent and the world. I love animals, some of which are my best friends. We like to learn, play, rap and have fun together while going on adventures that bring us closer to who we are. Will you join us on our journey?

